

WISDOM OF MEN VERSES YAH'S WISDOM

1Cor. 2:1-5 And when I came to you, brethren, I did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. 2 For I determined to know nothing among you except Yeshua, and Him crucified. 3 And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. 4 And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 that your faith should not rest on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God."

When you study the bible you don't do it from an academic perspective. If you approach the study of torah from an academic study perspective, you will learn nothing. If you try to learn torah from an academic point of view it will not work. Adonai is Spirit, so if you want to learn His Word you must study it from a spiritual perspective as Paul explained in 1Cor. 1:1-5. Paul didn't try to teach them in the same manner a scholarly teacher would. Scholarly teachers teach in a specific way when they build things one upon another in order to set up the teaching in a specific order to come up with a certain result. This is the teaching based on the wisdom of men. Our faith should be based on the power of God. Paul was teaching them based on the Spirit and Power of Yah, not on the wisdom of academia. When many people get into the Word they are trying to understand it, trying to get a lot of knowledge, but instead they should be asking Yah to change them so they can understand His Word. The frustration of acquiring knowledge is simple; there is no end to it. The moment you think you are starting to understand something, that is the moment you realize you know nothing. And this after you have acquired a lot of knowledge of various things. The real path of learning scripture is allowing the Spiritual words and Spiritual thoughts that come from the text to reach into your soul and change you.
