

CONFESS YOUR SINS TO ONE ANOTHER

James 5:16 “Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much.”

The practice of priests hearing confessions from individuals has gotten a lot of clergy in trouble over the years. The stories of women being taken advantage of by a priest is not a subject anyone dares to bring up, but it has happened countless times in the name of Jesus. Our good book tells us that we are to confess one to another, it doesn't say "to priests". When Simon sinned, Peter didn't tell him to confess to a Rabbi, or say ten hail Mary's, he told him to ask Yahveh for forgiveness.

The goddess Semiramis gets the honors for being the one who invented the confessional. She established it thousands of years before Christians were ever heard of. Semiramis designed the confessional to pry into the secrets of her followers.

At the time of World War Two these same confessionals were used to move secrets around for Hitlers army. They were a direct means of messages being secretly transferred for his SS Luciferian army.

Our good book tells us that we are to confess one to another, it doesn't say "to priests". James 5:16 "Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much." When Simon sinned Peter didn't tell him to confess to a Rabbi or say ten hail Mary's, he told him to ask YHVH for forgiveness. Acts 8:22 "Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to Adonai that if possible, the intention of your heart may be forgiven you." If we use the confession of Judas as an example we can see what happened when he confessed to the priests. He, in fact, committed suicide. Matt. 27:3-5 "Then when Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See {to that} yourself!" And he threw the pieces of silver into the sanctuary and departed; and he went away and hanged himself."

Many believe the confessional is a duplicate of what the pagans did in their rituals, as they secretly confessed to gain entrance into the mysteries of the Babylonian gods and goddesses. Once received they were bound into the pagan priesthood, and taught the secret meanings behind the symbols and rituals of the mystery religions.
