

MIXED SPIRITS

The result of mixed spirits is “confusion” and then “division”. When you hear a mixed message; some of it true and some false, people can react in different ways. Some will see the good and focus on it and accept the bad, and some will focus on the bad and reject the good. In either case it doesn't accomplish what Adonai's Word intended.

Another example is people who prophesy or receive a word. Many times a person can receive words from the Holy Spirit, but some times he receives words from other spirits. That is why in 1Ths. 5:21 Paul says “to test all things”. That is why in 1Cor. 2:15 it tells spiritual people to “appraise all things”. Unless one watches very closely he will be deceived like Eve in the Garden. 2Cor. 11:3 “But I am afraid, lest as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be led astray from the simplicity and purity {of devotion} to Messiah.”

The scriptures tell of King Saul, he had a mixture of spirits; he was a great king and military leader, but he went to see a witch for consultation on the last day of his life. This was his undoing.

It's hard to discern between the work done by the Holy Spirit and the work done by the evil spirit sometimes. One must realize that all the works of the Holy Spirit are done through mans spirit, but the works of the enemy can be done through mans soul or his spirit. The Holy Spirit moves the human spirit, while Satan moves the human soul and spirit. He usually works more on the soul because it is easier to manipulate. I conclude that while the Holy Spirit is the power/spirit of Yah, the human soul and spirit can be used for the power of Satan. Satan may not be able to demonize a Believers spirit like he can their soul, but he still influences it greatly. The counterfeit and the true mixed together cause chaos in most churches.

We must remember that almost everything done in the spirit, the soul can duplicate; but whatever is copied by the soul serves no other purpose than to counterfeit the spirit.

The Holy Spirit has the only key to Yah's storehouse and it comes because of what took place at Calvary.

1John 4:1 "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from Yahveh; because many false prophets have gone out into the world."

1John 4:2 "By this you know the Spirit of Yahveh: every spirit that confesses that Yeshua has come in the flesh is from Yahveh;"

1John 4:3-4 "and every spirit that does not confess Yeshua is not from Yahveh; and this is the {spirit} of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world. You are from Yahveh, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world."

2John 9 "Anyone who goes too far and does not abide in the teaching of Messiah, does not have Yahveh; the one who abides in the teaching, he has both the Father and the Son."

Isa. 29:9 "Be delayed and wait. Blind yourselves and be blind. They become drunk, but not with wine; They stagger, but not with strong drink"

Isa. 29:4 "Then you shall be brought low; From the earth you shall speak, And from the dust {where} you are prostrate, Your words {shall come.} Your voice shall also be like that of a spirit from the ground, And your speech shall whisper from the dust." This is referring to "familiar spirits".

In Lev. 19:19 Yah warns us about mixing things; livestock, seed, garments, etc.. Yah is telling us not to mix things. When He is referring to "mixed seed;" that is sowing (seed), the message; partial truth, and partial error. When He refers to "mixed garments" He also means living in both worlds, one foot in each world. We are either in His world or not! When He says not to "mix livestock," It's an analogy of a Biblical group or ministry aligning (mixing) themselves with a non Biblical group or ministry! When you mix livestock you create "sterile" animals. For example, you can breed a horse with a donkey but it's offspring, a mule, is always sterile. This is the reason so many churches become "sterile" or "dead", because of the mixing of spirits; the Holy Spirit and un-holy spirits.

The majority of those present in many of the charismatic services may have no idea of the mixture which has crept in. Some fall upon the ground unable to bear the strained emotion, or effect upon the mind. Some are thrown down by some supernatural power. Others cry out in ecstasy. The speaker leaves the platform, passes by a young man, who becomes conscious of a feeling of intoxication upon him, which does not leave his senses for some time. Others laugh with the thrill of the intoxicating joy. Some have had real spiritual help and blessing through the Word of Yah being expounded before this climax came, despite the false prophet. Consequently they now accept these untested, strange workings as from God, because in the first stage of the meeting, their needs have been truly met by Him. They cannot discern the two separate "manifestations" coming through the same channel! If they doubt the latter part of the meeting, they fear they are untrue to their inner conviction that the earlier part was "of Yah." Others are conscious that the "manifestations" are contrary to their spiritual vision, and judgment; but on account of the blessing of the earlier part they stifle their doubts, and say things like: "We cannot understand the 'physical' manifestations, but we must not expect to understand all that Yah does. We only know that the wonderful outpouring of truth and love and light at the beginning of the meeting was from Yah, and met our need. No one can mistake the sincerity, and the pure motive of the speaker. Therefore, although I cannot understand, or say I 'like' the physical manifestations, yet it must be all of Yah ." 90% pure water and 10% poison will still kill you!

John 4:48 "Yeshua therefore said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you simply will not believe." That's what it all comes down to, as Messiah described so well. people want to see signs and wonders of the supernatural, but are not willing to test it. Thus, it has become entertainment for demons!

TRUE AND COUNTERFEIT ACCEPTED TOGETHER

This is a glimpse into the mixed "manifestations" which have come upon the Body of Messiah. The new wine of these last days, before the return of Messiah, is found in Isa. 24:6-8 "Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and those who live in it are held guilty. Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left. The new wine mourns, The vine decays, All the merry-hearted sigh. The gaiety of tambourines ceases, The noise of revelers stops, The gaiety of the harp ceases." Almost without exception, since about 1990, in every land where supposed revival has broken forth, within a very brief period of time the counterfeit stream has mingled with the true. Almost without exception, true and false have been accepted together, because of the workers being ignorant of the possibility of concurrent streams; or else have been rejected together by those who could not detect the one from the other. The majority of Believers fail to understand that there can be mixed workings of the (1) divine and satanic, (2) divine and human, (3) satanic and human, (4) soul and spirit, (5) soul and body, (6) body and spirit. The three latter in the way of feelings and consciousness, and the three former in the way of source and power.

2Ths. 2:11-12 "And for this reason YHVH will send upon them a deluding influence so that they might believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness."

There must be more than one quantity to make a mixture; at least two. The devil mixes his lies with the truth, for he must use a truth to carry his lies. The Believer must therefore discriminate, and judge all things (1Cor. 2:15). He must be able to see so much to be impure, and so much that he can accept. Satan is a "mixer." If in anything he finds ninety-nine percent pure, he tries to insert one percent of his poisonous stream, and this grows, if undetected, until the proportions are reversed.

Where there is mixture acknowledged to be in meetings where supernatural manifestations take place, Believers should keep away until they are able to discern. After doing so, why would they want to participate?

In accepting the counterfeits of Satan, the Believer thinks, and believes, he is complying with Divine conditions, in order to ascend to a higher life; whereas he complies with conditions for Satanic workings in his life, and thereby descends into a pit of deception and suffering, with his spirit and motive pure.

DUAL STREAMS OF POWER

From such possessed Believers there can proceed, at intervals, streams from the two sources of power. There is one from the Spirit of Yah in the center, and the other from an evil spirit in the outer man. There are two parallel results to those who come in contact with the two streams of power. In preaching, all the truth spoken by such a Believer may be of God, and according to the Scriptures, correct and full of light--the spirit of the man is right. Yet at the same time evil spirits working in mind or body, make use of the cover of the truth to insert their manifestations. They can then find acceptance with both speaker and hearers. There may pour through a Believer at one moment, a stream of truth from the Word, giving light and love and blessing to receptive ones among the listeners. The next moment, a foreign spirit, hidden in mind or body, may send forth a streamlet through the soulish or physical part of the man, producing corresponding effects in soul or body among the listeners, who respond in their soulish or physical part to the Satanic stream, either by emotional or physical manifestations, or in nervous muscular actions.

One or the other of the "streams" of power from the Holy Spirit in his spirit, or from the deceiving spirit in mind or body, may predominate at different times. This makes the same man appear dual in character, with short intervals, at different periods of time. "See how he speaks! How he seeks to glorify Yah! How sane and reasonable he is! What a passion he has for souls!" This may all be said in truth of a worker, until some moments later some peculiar change is seen in him, in the same meeting. A strange element comes in, possibly only recognizable to some with keen spiritual vision, or else plainly obvious to all. Perhaps the speaker begins to pray quietly, and calmly, with a pure spirit, but suddenly the voice is raised, it sounds "hollow," or has a metallic tone. The tension of the meeting increases. An overwhelming, overmastering "power" falls upon it. And no one thinks of "resisting," with the power of the Blood of Yeshua, what appears to be such a "manifestation of Yah!"
