

WHAT IS AN OBELISK?

Obelisks are stone monuments, usually monolithic (cast from one piece) originally built and erected by the pagan religious groups in Egyptian times in honor of the Sun God. They are four sided, narrow tapering monuments which are topped of with a pyramid shaped (pyramidion) point. The Egyptians built many of them and called them "tekhenu". In Greek they were called obelisks, word meaning: spit, nail, or pointed pillar. Only 28 of the original Egyptian obelisks remain standing, with only six of those remaining in Egypt.

TOWER OF BABEL (BABYLON)

The tower of Babel in Gen. 11 was completed. It was the city around it that was not completed. The tower was 300 ft. high with a top of 60 x 80ft. It had a huge Zodiac on top for worshipping the SUN god. Yahveh mixed up their languages because they were supposed to scatter all over the earth, and they didn't. He made it so they couldn't communicate, thus they had to spread out away from each other because of confusion. The word "Babel" means confusion.

Many believe the celebrated Empire State Building, which was once the tallest building in the world, represents the Tower of Babel that Nimrod built.

Phallus symbols, obelisks, represent or are symbolic of:

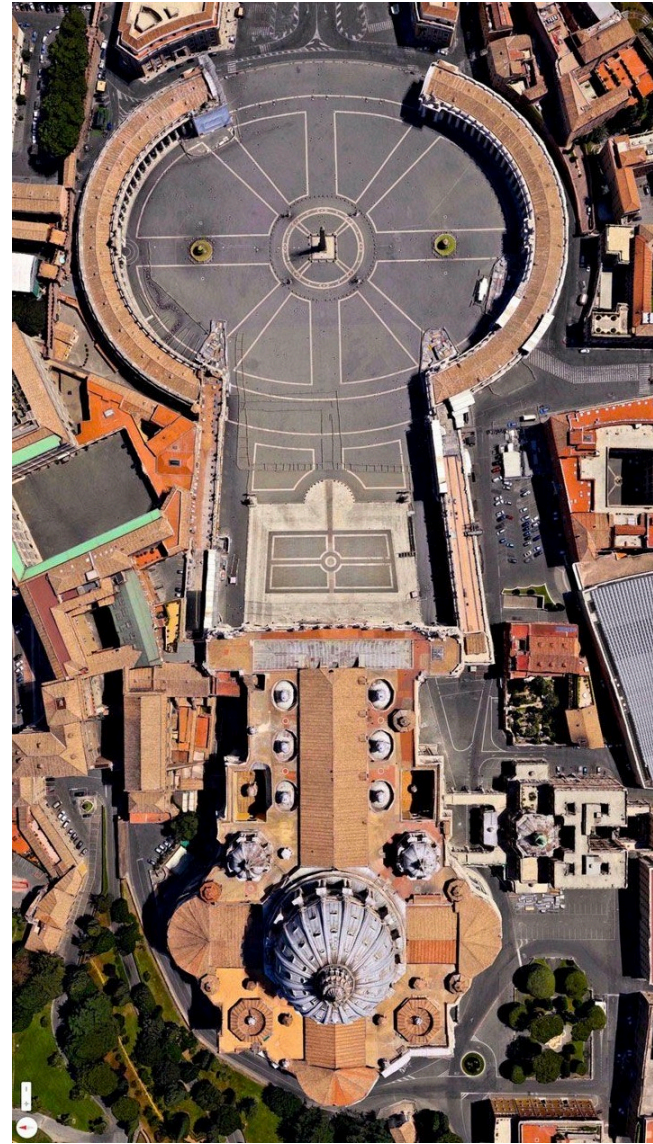

- 1) The obelisk is obviously symbolic of a phallus symbol, or erect penis, associated with all the fertility gods.
- 2) The Egyptian obelisks often represented their god Atum, who supposedly created the world.
- 3) Often obelisks are/were used for commemorating certain events, Kings, Queens, Governments, Leaders, or Pharaoh's, etc.
- 4) The obelisk is said to represent the phallus of Osiris, the partner of the Egyptian goddess Isis, mother of Horus. Isis is the first person of the pagan trinity of the Roman Catholic Church and her christian daughters religions; "IHS" (Isis, Horus, & Seb).
- 5) They were often built for commemorating the dead, symbolized rebirth, representing kings,

6) They were sometimes associated with the Benu bird which was thought to be the first living creature who set life in motion. This "Benu" bird was the precursor of the Greek Phoenix. This bird was somehow linked to the "Morning Star". This "Morning Star", or "Bright Morning Star", or "Evening Star", represented the planet Venus in regards to reincarnation. The Benu bird was in turn connected to the sun god "Ra" and "Thoth", "Amen", "Amen-Ra", "Amun", and Amun-Ra" with light and life. Obelisks were said to represent the vitality and immortality of any supposed living deity, as per its dedication.

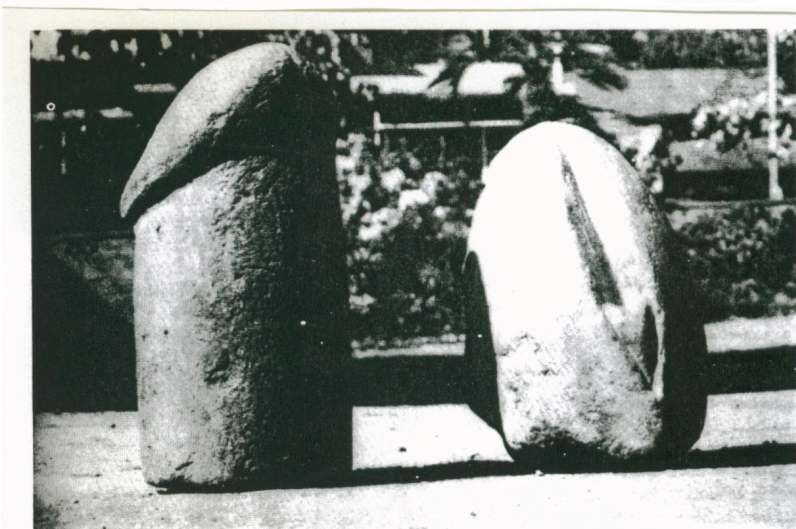

7) Dual obelisks were often precisely positioned so that the first and last light of the day would touch their peaks to honor the sun god and help guide it through its nightly journey. The Sun god would have to navigate its journey and avoid its destruction by the great serpent Apophis.

8) Obelisks were frequently positioned in courtyards of temples to honor the sun god within and the sun god that would sail overhead. They are always positioned to mark (with their shadow), the position of the sun during its various solstices either for: summer, winter, spring, or fall.

9) The obelisk at the Vatican, St. Peter's Basilica, represents the many fertility gods of the Roman Catholic Church.

10) There was a 130 foot high obelisk erected for the fertility goddess Semiramis in Babylon.

*Megaliths. Japanese *megaliths provide clear evidence of fertility-oriented genital worship (see *Phallic Worship, Yoni Worship).

11) Egyptian high priests used to offer up "penises", fleshly symbolic of dead men, to their gods as a fertility sacrifice.

12) Since the twentieth century obelisks have taken on a New Age Ying Yang type secret gew-gaw (useless/worthless meanings), supposedly established as symbols that dispel negative forces such as "negative trapped energy" and "bad energy".

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT OBELISKS

The obelisks of ancient heathen temples have been re-constructed and erected at many Roman Catholic churches. The very ancient Cleopatra's obelisk in New York's Central Park, is also called the "might monument of hoary antiquity". The masons are the ones that put the obelisk there.

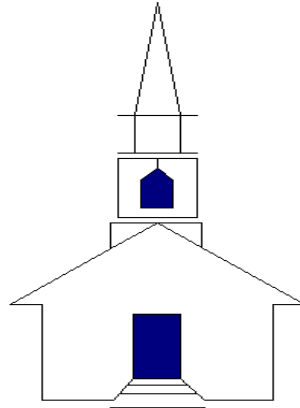

The tallest obelisk in the world is the one located at the Washington Monument.

Benito Mussolini, the Italian dictator had an obelisk raised on the banks of the Tiber River, north of Rome's city center. It was made from the largest piece of Carrara marble ever quarried. It represented Fascism, and the power of Rome. What is the main focus in Rome, the Vatican. It represented the sun god of the Roman Catholic Whore.

The phallus (erect penis), symbol is also represented in the Roman Catholic church as the aspergillum, or "holy water" sprinkler.

Some of these pagan symbols were talked about in our Scriptures as "images of Belshemesh/Heliopolis" in Jer. 43:13 "He will also shatter the obelisks of Heliopolis, which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire." The obelisk at the great Roman Catholic Cathedral of Cologne is 515 feet high. The one at the Cathedral in Ulm Germany is 528 feet high.

The towers or steeples with or without crosses on them, (that we see on many churches all over the world) represent an erect penis. They are known as heathen images (idols), associated with the Tower of Babel, Semiramis, Helena, etc., honoring gods of Babylonian origin.

It was in 431 that crosses became popular in churches, and they became popular on steeples in 586. In South America new born children were placed under the protection of the cross symbol which they thought scared away evil spirits. Because the cross supposedly worked miracles for goddess Helena and Emperor Constantine, many believed crosses and steeples had the ability to ward off evil spirits, so they were mounted on top of buildings. The pagan steeples and crosses were also thought to ward off lightning.

These were thought to be weapons used by the gods when they were angry at the people. Many crosses were mounted on homes, thought to ward off trouble and diseases.

Now it is commonplace to see heathen crosses mounted on erect penises (steeples/obelisks), on so-called Holy places all over the world. Some of these phallic organs are even designed to light up at night so they can be seen from great distances. Many deceived Christians gather on SUN worship day and give reverence to the fertility gods in the name of Christianity. Go figure.

Today these similar type structures can be seen in China and worshipped as "pagodas" by the millions of heathen Hindus.

The Hindus worship an idol called "lingam", "vulva", an object (obelisk) representing the male sex organ "phallus" signifying fertility and life. Their temples have these obelisks and pornographic pictures and sculptures at their entrance. It is these same Hindu's that worship cow manure; "the cow gives milk, and milk gives life", so the cow is holy and thought to be worthy of worship.

New Age:

Small hand held crystal obelisks and jewelry (earrings, pendants), are also used in "Crystal Healing".

Obelisks are used in Feng Shui, these crystals are widely used for their specific vibration and energy they bring to homes and offices. They are believed to purify the energy by amplifying it and focussing it through the pointed end of the crystal apex, therefore acquiring good mental and physical health, emotional balance and dissipate negative energy.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CONNECTION

One of the most famous "erect penises" can be found in the central courtyard (Babylonian Solar Wheel) in front of St. Peter's Basilica at the Vatican. At the Vatican, a heathen obelisk stands 132 feet high. That phallus symbol stands tall for all visitors to see when they enter the sewer, called the Vatican.

The Roman Catholic Priests around the world are famous for their perverse bisexual activity, even though the Mother Church says they are celibate. The violations in the nunneries, convents and monasteries, were so bad in the 9th. century that St. Theodore Studita forbade even female animals (even dogs) on monastery property! Billions of dollars has been paid out over the years in lawsuits and cover-ups because of sexually promiscuous priests of Rome. The whole world knows this, yet somehow it is NEVER talked about in our pagan society. More proof that Satan is the god of this world.

The Nuns are well known for servicing their so-called celibacy also, but for some strange reason this is not common knowledge. For anyone in doubt of how the Nuns were forced to participate with these Catholic monsters called Priests, I suggest reading or watching the testimony of Sister Charlotte Wells (Keckler), the Carmelite Nun, the Roman church had silenced in 1983.

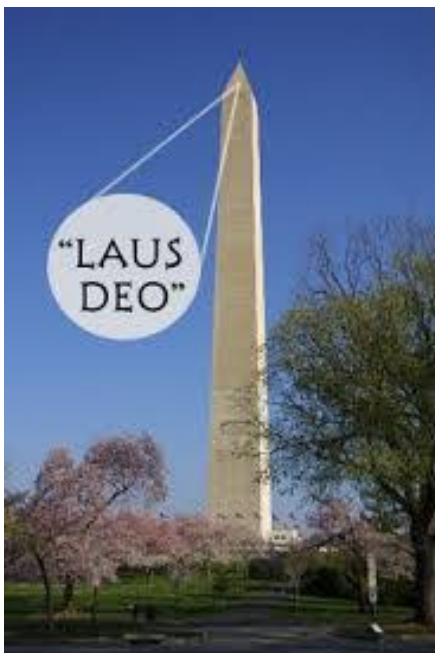

In Seville, Spain in about 1934 and, in Madrid in about 1932, the governments of the presidents Aznar and Manuel Azana demanded a National investigation be made of all Roman Catholic schools, monasteries, church buildings and convents because of the sexual perversion being reported. Their investigation found many baby skeletons hidden in the caves and tunnels underneath the monasteries and convents. These skeletons were found to be that of children of nuns who were copulating with the priests and monks. The children were proven to have been put to death by suffocation, and hidden underground so the world would never find out. As a result many church buildings were destroyed by the Spanish people themselves. The stories of such incidents were covered up by the Vatican and very few others ever found out.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT (ERECT PENIS..PHALLUS SYMBOL..OBELISK)

In 1884 the tallest stone structure in the world (555 feet), "The Washington Monument" phallic symbol, was dedicated to George Washington, the god in whom America trusts. Many people are familiar with the fact that the penis is 555 feet tall, (which, by itself has a secret meaning in Masonry), but few realize the pilings for the monument were drilled 111 feet deep. Add 555 and 111 and believe it or not, you get 666.

Its construction was paid for by William Vanderbilt, a Freemason. When you enter the penis (monument), and look above the elevator you will see a sculptured image of a "Winged penis" with two snakes and a star on it. On top of the over five hundred fifty foot phallic symbol, is an aluminum capstone (like the one on the dollar bill). On the east side of the capstone is engraved two Latin words: "Laus Deo", which means "Praise be to god". The so-called God of America and the erect American penis has been, and always will be Satan.

There is a Satanic link between the obelisks found at St. Peters Basilica in the Vatican and the obelisk found at the Washington Monument. These (usually) three or four sided pillars, today, represent both religious and political power worldwide. To the Jesuits, Masons, Rosicrucians, and the Illuminati (secretly called Moriah), they all secretly stand for "One World Government", "One World Order".

In Masonry, the Obelisk can secretly represent: an "Erect Penis" (fertility symbol), the planet Venus, ("Bright Star", "Morning or Evening Star"), or "Jacob's Ladder" (Gen. 28:18).

If you go July 4th, and stand facing east at the Washington Monument Obelisk, you will see the tip of this "erect penis" line up and point precisely to, (at an elevation of 33 degrees), Venus, the "Bright Star".

There is a long rectangular body of water to the west of the Washington Monument, between the Lincoln Memorial and the Obelisk: This body of water is called the "Reflecting Pool": The long pool reflects the tall obelisk when facing east. This obelisk was designed to "point" at Venus, the "Bright Star" when it reaches a certain position in the sky on July 4th yearly.

To quickly sum up this matter of this obelisk, the Washington Monument was created to mark the passage of Venus as it lined up with the obelisk alignment. The erect penis is symbolically ejaculating (sacrificing) upwards to the planet Venus.

George Washington was of course a Freemason, who dedicated the US Capital Building and the city of Washington to the god, Jah-Bul-On of the Masons. The nation was cursed when he did so, and remains cursed to this day.

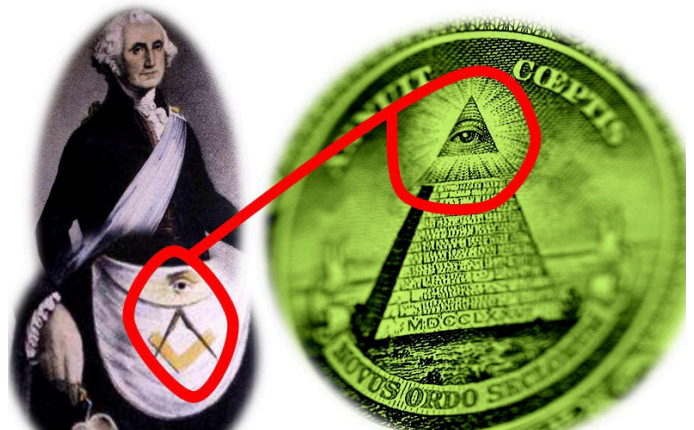

The Lincoln Memorial in Washington (next to the obelisk), is actually designated as a Temple, a colossus idol. On a plaque on the wall there it is inscribed as such.

When you enter the penis (monument), and look above the elevator you will see a sculptured image of a "Winged penis" with two snakes and a star on it.

On top of the over five hundred foot phallic symbol, is an aluminum capstone (like the one on the dollar bill). On the east side of the capstone is engraved two Latin words: "Laus Deo", which means "Praise be to god".. The obvious problem to anyone with ears to hear and eyes to see, is that Americans don't realize which god they are referring to. One thing I can assure you, it is not the Holy One of Israel.

The so-called god of America, has always been Satan regardless of what name he is hiding under. The erect American penis has been, and always will represent Satan. The god of America has always been the devil depicted so clearly on the American Seal and dollar bill. The god of the greenback dollar. The same god of Freemasonry which established its hold over America when it was first founded. The god of Jah-Bul-On.

"The Great Architect Of The Universe". This great god of the Mason's has been around wearing many different colored suits for a long long time.

That Sun god has been known for thousands of years as Nimrod, Tammuz, Molech, Baal, Horus, Zeus, Set, Olympus, Jupiter, Amen, Baphomet, Moroni, Saturn, etc. Next time you look at an American dollar bill think about what god it refers to in the statement: "In God We Trust".

How sad is it that otherwise normal people must lower themselves to a state at which they give honor to worship male and female reproductive organs in the name of a so-called deity? It really makes one wonder why so many are so mentally incapacitated.

The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob made it abundantly clear His people will not worship graven images. In fact it was so important to Him that He even wrote a commandment in that regard.

Exod. 20:4-6 "You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth. 5 "You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, Yahveh your Elohim, am a jealous Elohim, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing lovingkindness to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments"

Lev. 26:1 "You are not to make yourselves any idols, erect a carved statue or a standing-stone, or place any carved stone anywhere in your land in order to bow down to it. I am ADONAI your Elohim."

Deut. 16:22 Likewise, do not set up a standing-stone; ADONAI your Elohim hates such things"
